

Privacy information Statement International Society of Seed Science

ISSS members are informed that they have the right to obtain confirmation of data held about themselves, and how it has been used. This information can be obtained by email from the secretary within one calendar month from the date of the request. Data will be provided in the form of email. A statement and link to the email address of the secretary is included in the privacy statement. No fee is payable for this information.

If a request is made to delete personal data, in person or in writing, this terminates the legitimate interest in holding the data, and the ISSS will delete all data associated with that member within one month of receipt of that request. Responsibility for this process lies with the secretary. Data of elapsed members will be deleted by the secretary after 3 years of non-membership.

An ISSS member may request a restriction in the processing of their data by the ISSS. Such requests should be made to the secretary. Such requests will be actioned by the secretary within one month of receipt of the request. Because of the limited nature of the data retained. Members may also object to the processing of their data. Requests for such should be made by email to the secretary, and will be actioned within one month.

The ISSS has no automated decision-making processes.
